

Staunton Spectator.

STAUNTON, VA.

THURSDAY, NOV. 19, 1863.

Those who desire to pay their subscription in wood can do so by hauling us good logs and good wood.

On Wednesday morning last, at 5 o'clock, a fire broke out in the building occupied by the Staunton Hotel, occupied by Miss Nancy Garber, as a hotel, and by Miss Mary E. Pearson, as a Millinery Store, were consumed by fire.

There was very great commotion among the awakened and started boarders in the Hotel. Many machines made their hurried appearance on the street.

All who assisted in arresting the ravages of the fire deserve great praise. We need it to the hands in the shoe factory to say that, upon this as upon former similar occasions, they did their duty nobly.

The following is the vote for Congress in this District so far as heard from.

Table with columns for Name, Votes, and Party. Includes names like Angus, Rockingham, Rockledge, Fondleton, etc.

The Confederate War Tax. There seems to be a general preference, says the Examiner, on the part of the States of the Confederacy to prevent the Confederate tax gatherers from making their appearance among them.

It is to be noticed, however, that Congress has not appropriated the sum to be raised among the States without the intervention of Confederate Assessors. In the act of Congress provision is made for the appointment of assessors by the Confederate Government, and the valuation of taxable property in each State.

On Thursday last 45 prisoners were taken to Richmond on the Danville train in custody of Captain Phelps, of Floyd's cavalry, and a guard of eleven men. These prisoners are all Virginia Unionists, except two who are from Kentucky, Boone, and Raleigh counties, on the 24th of October, while they were holding an election under the bogus Government of Wheeling.

Views of Wm. Smith O'Brien. Mr. Smith O'Brien has, through the columns of the Dublin Morning News, addressed a long letter dated Dublin, Oct. 12, to Capt. Thomas Francis Maghera, on the American war. Mr. O'Brien expresses the views taken by Mr. Maghera, who advocates the war against the South, and proceeds to show that, even supposing the Northerners were successful, they would not be able to keep the conquered States in subjection.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Confederate force—Cavalry 70; Eighth Virginia Regiment, 400; Light Infantry, (one company) 80—making in all 1,100.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

The Cause of Disunion. Charles Botta, the Italian Historian of the war of the Independence of the United States of America, says in his admirable history, 'The Cause of Disunion'.

When I took up arms in defence of the South, it was to illustrate, by example, the beautiful theory with which I had for many years regarded the people to strike for equality in the Union.

Here we have an experienced statesman, possessed of a high order of intellect, and well acquainted with men and things, modestly declining any military office which would place the lives of others at his disposal.

The capture was made by the San Jacinto, a large steam frigate, commanded by Commodore Wilkes.

Intelligence was received at the War Department, on Sunday, of the capture, on the high seas, by one of the enemy's cruisers, from aboard the British mail packet, in which they had embarked from Havana, of Messrs. Mason and Slidell, our Commissioners, respectively, to England and France, together with their Secretaries, Messrs. Austin and Macfarland.

Virginia Prisoners. The 103 Southern men whom Lincoln had imprisoned in Fort La Fayette in New York have been removed to Fort Warren in Boston Harbor.

Arrival of an English Steamer. Another English steamer has succeeded in entering one of the Confederate ports. Her cargo consists of blankets, army stores—sufficient for four brigades—twenty-eight thousand stand of arms, saddles, ten rifled cannon, medicines &c.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

The Heaviness of the Prisoners. The following is the official correspondence relating to the selection, by the States for the prisoners of war, of a list of names for their release in Philadelphia.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

Force of the Yankee Armada. From detailed statements in the Northern papers we gather the following facts as to the force and equipment of the Yankee Armada.

Fatal Accident in Kentucky. A fatal accident in the burning of a balling gun occurred at Columbus, Kentucky, by which two officers and seven privates were killed on the spot.

The Deserter of Florida. The Governor of Florida, in view of a possible invasion of his soil by the forces of the Southern Republic, has issued a proclamation to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency.

Views of the Yankees. The following is the exact number of Confederate troops engaged and the casualties suffered by the enemy to the battle of Leesburg.

MARRIED. On the 14th inst. at the Western Female Institute, Staunton, Va. by the Rev. Wm. H. Ward, Mr. Wm. H. Ward and Miss Elizabeth Ann Kinnear, both of this city.

DIED. In France, the 27th of November, at the Wilder 15th Regt. Co., Major Stephen B. Jones, 53 yrs. New Englander, who was remarkably brave, intelligent, upright, affectionate and lively. Yet with all these traits he was a man of a lowly and unassuming character. He was a soldier, a sailor, a brother and a friend to all in his path.

At his residence near Healing Springs, North Carolina, on Thursday, the 7th day of November, 1863, Col. Charles B. Hopkins. He had in his advanced age, and gained the reputation of all who knew him of being one of the kind of noblest, whose hand was always ready to be raised in aid of the needy, and whose heart was ever open to the sorrows, troubles and friends to all in his path.

THE MARKETS. RICHMOND MARKETS. Reported by P. N. Powell & Co. Flour—Superior... 4.75 to 5.00. Extra... 4.50 to 4.75. Family... 4.25 to 4.50. Grain—Wheat... 1.25 to 1.50. Corn... 1.00 to 1.25. Butter... 20 to 25 cents per pound. Bacon... 12 to 15 cents per pound. Salt... 10 to 12 cents per bushel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. NOTICE! BEING well and having my stock than I can afford, I will offer at public sale on Thursday, the 26th Instant, a pair of the valuable Horses, one of 7 head of Cattle, (among which are some good Milch Cows, 10 or 12 large fat Hogs, and some good Hens; also, a number of fine and several hundred Pigeons. For particulars apply to J. G. HENNING, Jr., at the residence of Mr. J. G. HENNING, Jr., on the 26th Instant.

TO ABSENT ARTILLERYMEN. THERE are a number of members of the 1st Artillery Regiment, who have been absent from their regiments, and have not yet returned. They are required to report to their regiments, and to be present at the muster, on or before the 1st of December. If they fail to do so, they will be considered as deserters, and will be liable to the penalties of the law. It is the duty of all absentees to report to their regiments, and to be present at the muster, on or before the 1st of December.

DESERTER! SAMUEL LAMBERT, a member of Capt. Doyle's Company, 1st Va. Regiment, deserted on the 1st of October, and has since been in the service of the Southern Republic. He is a deserter, and is liable to the penalties of the law. It is the duty of all deserters to report to their regiments, and to be present at the muster, on or before the 1st of December.

SHOTS FOR SALE. Will be sold at the Western Female Institute on Friday, the 20th Instant, a number of good Shot Guns, and a number of good Shot. For particulars apply to J. G. HENNING, Jr., at the residence of Mr. J. G. HENNING, Jr., on the 20th Instant.

SAVING CUTTERS. Use down of the best SAVING CUTTERS for sale. GEO. E. PEARCE, Staunton, Va.

TRACE CHAINS—By order of the Board of Ordnance, a number of good Trace Chains, and a number of good Shot. For particulars apply to J. G. HENNING, Jr., at the residence of Mr. J. G. HENNING, Jr., on the 20th Instant.

CAUTION! THE subscriber would caution all those indebted to the late J. G. HENNING, Jr., to pay their debts immediately, and to be present at the muster, on or before the 1st of December. If they fail to do so, they will be considered as deserters, and will be liable to the penalties of the law.

SHOTS FOR SALE. Will be sold at the Western Female Institute on Friday, the 20th Instant, a number of good Shot Guns, and a number of good Shot. For particulars apply to J. G. HENNING, Jr., at the residence of Mr. J. G. HENNING, Jr., on the 20th Instant.

STAUNTON SPECTATOR AND GENERAL ADVERTISER.

Prince Napoleon. The fact that the Prince Napoleon, since his return, has expressed the opinion that the restoration of the South and the reconstruction of the Union are impossible, are gall and wormwood to the Lincoln Government.

Staunton Spectator.

RICHARD NAUZY, Editor & Proprietor.

TERMS. The "Spectator" is published once a week, on Tuesday and Friday. It contains news, local and foreign, and is published for the year in advance.

Large and Unreserved Auction Sale of Dry Goods.

The partnership now existing between the undersigned will soon expire, by limitation. This notice is given to all parties who have claims against the firm, to present them to the undersigned.

Send in your names!

In addition to the usual variety of original and reprinted articles, the Spectator publishes a large and valuable list of names of the Southern Field and Fineside.

Original Stories.

Written expressly for the columns of this favorite home journal.

Field and Fineside.

On the complete set of these stories, another will appear, entitled "Southern Hearts."

Southern Hearts.

It should not seem a matter of pride with our people to sustain and cherish a press, firmly established in the South, for the publication of Southern literature.

Notice.

On Monday, November 11th, the Mail and Express will be suspended for one day.

Public Sale.

Will be held on Wednesday, the 30th day of October, at 10 o'clock, A.M., at the Court House, Staunton, Va.

Strayed.

PALE RED BULL. A yearling, some white under the belly and crumpled tail, a reasonable reward will be paid for any information that leads to its capture.

Dr. Arthur.

HAS returned from his travels, and is now in the city, ready to receive his patients.

Stock of Goods.

BRANDY, WHISKY, &c. A large and complete stock of goods, including brandy, whisky, and other liquors.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Office of the Confederate Minister, Washington, D.C.

THE following list of appointments is published for the information of the public.

Chief Clerk of the Court, Wm. T. H. Garrison.

Attorney General, James M. Holt.

Secretary of the Treasury, Charles G. Smith.

Comptroller of the Treasury, John C. Caldwell.

Director of the Mint, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Buildings, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Printing, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Lands, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Works, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Health, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Education, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Religion, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Arts, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Sciences, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Literature, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Music, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Drama, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetry, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public History, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Chronology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Cosmography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Meteorology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Zoology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Botany, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mineralogy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Astronomy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mathematics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Philosophy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Logic, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Rhetoric, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Criticism, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Aesthetics, James A. B. Smith.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Office of the Confederate Minister, Washington, D.C.

THE following list of appointments is published for the information of the public.

Chief Clerk of the Court, Wm. T. H. Garrison.

Attorney General, James M. Holt.

Secretary of the Treasury, Charles G. Smith.

Comptroller of the Treasury, John C. Caldwell.

Director of the Mint, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Buildings, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Printing, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Lands, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Works, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Health, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Education, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Religion, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Arts, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Sciences, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Literature, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Music, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Drama, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetry, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public History, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Chronology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Cosmography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Meteorology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Zoology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Botany, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mineralogy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Astronomy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mathematics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Philosophy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Logic, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Rhetoric, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Criticism, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Aesthetics, James A. B. Smith.

PRIVATE SALES.

Will be held on Wednesday, the 30th day of October, at 10 o'clock, A.M., at the Court House, Staunton, Va.

THE following list of appointments is published for the information of the public.

Chief Clerk of the Court, Wm. T. H. Garrison.

Attorney General, James M. Holt.

Secretary of the Treasury, Charles G. Smith.

Comptroller of the Treasury, John C. Caldwell.

Director of the Mint, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Buildings, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Printing, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Lands, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Works, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Health, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Education, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Religion, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Arts, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Sciences, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Literature, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Music, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Drama, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetry, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public History, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Chronology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Cosmography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Meteorology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Zoology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Botany, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mineralogy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Astronomy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mathematics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Philosophy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Logic, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Rhetoric, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Criticism, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Aesthetics, James A. B. Smith.

RICHMOND ADVERTISEMENTS.

Will be held on Wednesday, the 30th day of October, at 10 o'clock, A.M., at the Court House, Staunton, Va.

THE following list of appointments is published for the information of the public.

Chief Clerk of the Court, Wm. T. H. Garrison.

Attorney General, James M. Holt.

Secretary of the Treasury, Charles G. Smith.

Comptroller of the Treasury, John C. Caldwell.

Director of the Mint, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Buildings, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Printing, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Lands, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Works, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Health, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Education, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Religion, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Arts, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Sciences, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Literature, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Music, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Drama, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetry, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public History, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Chronology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Cosmography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Meteorology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Zoology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Botany, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mineralogy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Astronomy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mathematics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Philosophy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Logic, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Rhetoric, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Criticism, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Aesthetics, James A. B. Smith.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Office of the Confederate Minister, Washington, D.C.

THE following list of appointments is published for the information of the public.

Chief Clerk of the Court, Wm. T. H. Garrison.

Attorney General, James M. Holt.

Secretary of the Treasury, Charles G. Smith.

Comptroller of the Treasury, John C. Caldwell.

Director of the Mint, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Buildings, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Printing, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Lands, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Works, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Health, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Education, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Religion, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Arts, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Sciences, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Literature, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Music, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Drama, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetry, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public History, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Chronology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Cosmography, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Meteorology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Zoology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Botany, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mineralogy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Geology, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Astronomy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Mathematics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Philosophy, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Logic, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Rhetoric, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Poetics, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Criticism, James A. B. Smith.

Director of the Public Aesthetics, James A. B. Smith.