wives, whom he employs in carrying palm oil to the coast, and thence raw rum and tobacco back to the palace for their husband and king.

gie, or his associate, Jackson. In their speeches they seem to me models for similar statements to look up to, and strive to equal.

THREE MEN SAVED FROM GOING OVER NIAGARA.—Three residents of Chippewa, O. W., were crossing Niagara river in a sail boat last Saturday.

ANOTHER COUNTERFEIT.—A new counterfeit five dollar note, on the Broadwing Bank, has appeared.

A SABLE SICKLES CASE.—On Sunday, near Leesburg, Va., a slave named Sam, belonging to W. H. Gray, deliberately shot and killed Bill, a slave of J. D. Wildman.

A young man named Myron Reed, a resident of Tully, Oneida County, New York, was engaged to a Miss Louise Brown of the same town.

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.—The elections for members of Congress to be held in the course of this year are as follows:

A NEW COUNTERFEIT.—A new counterfeit $5 bill on the Farmers and Drivers' Bank, of Somers, N. Y., has been put in circulation.

Mr. Ex-Governor David Campbell, of Virginia, died in Abingdon, Virginia on the 19th instant, aged eighty years.

A fool in high station is like a man on the top of a monument—everything appears small to him, and he appears small to everybody.

The fact that a man's word is at a discount is no indication that his note will be discounted.

He is happy whose circumstances suit his temper; but he is happier who can suit his temper to his circumstances.

It is a remarkable fact, that however well young ladies understand grammar, very few of them are able to decline correctly.

Out west they divorce husband and wife, if either party moves to leave the other's sleep.

Richelle's weak stomach, when furnished on a strong mind. But common sense would guard, and find an empty stomach.

The same which follows, and is a good deal more than you would expect to find in a book of this kind.

DEATH OF ABOLITIONISM IN NEW ENGLAND. Boston, March 10, 1859. DEAR BROTHER: I have read your speech of the 21st ultimo, delivered in the House of Representatives.

You speak of the change of tone and sentiment that has taken place during the last twenty five years on the subject of slavery.

Campbell painted the wild chieftain on his native plains, so noble, so free, so happy—caught, chained, doomed, snuffed, till the hurricanes in the West India were commissioned to avenge his wrongs.

The only ground on which I can claim their patience and forbearance toward us meddling with their affairs, and for abusing them as much as we have, and as some still continue to do, is this: They gave us the false premises on which we reasoned correctly to false conclusions.

The South are impracticable. The constitution protects them, the Bible protects them, and the experience of mankind protects them.

It cannot be denied that the idea of slavery runs all through the Bible; it is stamped upon the history of every vigorous nation upon the face of the earth; it is deeply and indelibly stamped upon the face of the race, and I can readily believe that a man may sustain the relation of slaveholder, in all good conscience, and with the entire approval of God.

The truth is, we have been wont to contemplate the condition of the slave at the South from a wrong point of view.

But Africa is not only a wilderness of long hours, but out of this wilderness grow all manner of vices.

You touch in no very general manner some of the social vices of your brethren at the South.

It is not easy to see how we could do without the slaveholders. See how their names shine along and adorn the past history of our country.

The truth is, we have been wont to contemplate the condition of the slave at the South from a wrong point of view. We compare them to races or nations more highly civilized, and their condition seems harsh and degraded; but what were they when the Christian nations took them by the hand and led them across the ocean?

Justice waits laborers, not because there are not plenty of them on the island, but because they will not work; and some British philanthropy which stands guard over the stalwart and immensely laboring of Ham, brings in the feeble children of Shem, and dooms them to the same bondage under another name.

As to the influence of slavery on the character of the whites, that is quite an other question; but so far as the political history of our country is concerned, it is not easy to see how we could do without the slaveholders.

Mr. Dickens is at work writing a book, not to be published, but to be read by the author.

On Monday last the wife of Mr. Samuel Hyde, a workman in the mill of the Hamilton Company, at Lowell, Mass., with a young child in her arms, went to see her husband.

The democratic party has carried the country up from small beginnings to its present prosperous and happy condition; and, only occasionally being taken out to be aired and purified, is destined under that name, and with essentially its original and present principles, to govern this nation while we remain a republic.

These are the principles, motives, and banners of success which were around the democratic party.

Another large meeting was held this evening relative to the disappearance of Mr. Yeager. Resolutions were passed sympathizing with his family and friends.

Portent.

It is lonely thought, I pondered
On the morrow's things of worth.

At their beauty, power and worth.
Come, like words of prayer, the feeling

Through the spirit's ebb revealing.
Wail of his death,
In to me a book the greatest.

Blighting on from age to age.
Beating traces, earliest, latest,
Through the world's long pilgrim-age.

Then the clouds of ancient fable
Cleared away before mine eyes.

Then the clouds of ancient fable
Cleared away before mine eyes.
I had not sufficient self-reliance.

My friend and hero was what is called
A self-made man. The slender means

Of his family had merely sufficed to give him
A liberal education, at the cost of many privations.

And now this was all over, the furnishing

It's the little troubles that wear the heart out.
It is easier to throw a bomb-shell

The world is full of people, who, making by custom and outward appearance to reduce his price, so that corn was cheap.

It is not the money that counts, but the character of the man who spends it.

An Englishman who was travelling on the Mississippi river...

"How so?" Inquired the Englishman, with a look of surprise...

"No, no," replied the Englishman, "I am not a native of this country...

The Tendency of Democracy.

We put the following extravagant paragraph from the Transcript of the 16th instant:

The natural tendency of Loco-freedom is to "dwarf" and stunt every thing it touches...

Let us test this declaration in the crucible of history.

It is a historical fact that THOMAS JEFFERSON was the father of Democracy in America...

When the triumph of Democracy over Federalism in the year 1800 bore JEFFERSON into the Presidential chair, the Mississippi river was the western boundary of the United States...

On the South too our limits were circumscribed—not by the ocean and the gulf, as they are now, but by the possession of the Mississippi...

Federalism, whose dim vision did not extend to the future, was content with the territorial limits of the Union; but the great heart of Democracy, swelling with a consciousness of its expansive power...

Florida remained in the hands of Spain. It was not as important as Louisiana, but it was of considerable extent and had a delightful climate...

As late as 1844, Texas, though her settlers were fresh of our flesh and bone of our bone, was a foreign country. She had fine cotton lands, and England, whose hearts greatest desire is to raise up a cotton growing rival to the United States...

The Democracy were not yet done with their "dwarfing" operations. We had an extensive coast on the Pacific, but it was deficient in commodious harbors. California had the finest harbor in the world; but California in 1847, like Texas in 1844, was foreign soil to us...

On the 10th of June, 1859, on motion of Mr. JOHNSON, the Senate assented the Fatal Bill so as to raise the rate of letter postage to five cents. Mr. BRIGGS voted against the increase, and Mr. CAMERON did not vote at all...

In the golden sands of California, there to stand till the sound of the last trumpet. There is not a nation in the world that would not rejoice to have its growth similarly "stunted."

These are but a few of the achievements of the Democracy, but they are enough to secure forever the fame of the Democratic party. If something has at last been done to dwarf our country in the eyes of the world...

The second clause of the Transcript's allegation is hardly worthy of notice, and yet we will notice it. It has formed for several years the leading staple of every opposition harangue.

The Democracy have not committed "the grossest wrong" to spread the institution of slavery. They have not even attempted to spread it, either by "gross wrong" or by constitutional right...

Since the year 1800, with occasional exceptions only, the Democracy have had the President and a majority of both branches of Congress. Very often their majority in Congress was overwhelming.

The resolution wisely came to by the President not to call an extra session of Congress at a time when almost half the Union could not be represented...

The Black Vomit. The resolution wisely came to by the President not to call an extra session of Congress at a time when almost half the Union could not be represented...

Mr. GREELEY's Republican brethren generally share his bitter disappointment. The Graw conspiracy has failed, and naturally enough, the conspirators are in a bad humor.

It is very plain that the adoption of Graw's resolution denouncing the action of the Senate as an infringement of the constitutional privileges of the House, was a factious partisan movement only...

was not thought of, or if thought of it was pebbled. At that time there was nothing to be gained for Republicanism by an extra session, for the Democracy had the officers of the House.

We can pardon the rage of the Republican managers. Their darling political has been spoiled—their stock of political rascality squandered to no purpose.

The Presidency. Promontory symptoms of the Presidential campaign of 1860 are visible already. Several distinguished gentlemen have been proposed as candidates on the Democratic side...

The Political Seeps. JOHN W. FORNEY, the NENA SAHIB of the political seeps of Pennsylvania, has issued a manifesto to his associate cut throats, inviting them to a council of war on the 12th of April.

Wanted. A suitable reward will be given for an able bodied admirer of Gov. PAVAN, to represent Franklin County in the Sepoy Convention. Free Railroad tickets and free whisky supplied on application to FORNEY.

GENERAL NEWS. The 5th of April has been fixed on by the House for the adjournment of the Legislature. There will be no extra session of Congress.

Hard to Walk Up. A fellow who had imbibed an extra quantity of Parker's Essence of Strychnine and his elegant proportions to back in the vanishing on a store box on Wallace's corner, on Monday last...

Burned to Death. A man named Jacob Reed, a resident of Horse Valley, in this county, was, we learn from the Transcript, burned to death on the 9th inst.

Spring Has Come.—And so has the time for gardening, sowing up, and Spring work generally. In gardening the most important item is the selection of seeds that are warranted pure and good, and true to the label. This is the kind that Spangler keeps on hand at his large and extensive establishment, where you can get anything in the way of Drugs, Medicines, Perfumery, Fancy Articles, all kinds of Seeds, and anything else in his line—all for sale cheap for cash. Go and see.

Pure Hungarian Grass Seed.—A large lot of Hungarian Grass Seed for sale low at the Agricultural Store, Chambersburg. Also a great variety of Seed Potatoes from the East. Send in your orders early.

A large lot of Hungarian Grass Seed for sale low at the Agricultural store of A. R. Hurst, Chambersburg, Pa. Send in your orders early. This is the same as the famous Hager's Blaine H. Grass—so says the American Agriculturist, March No. 1859.

DEATH OF A WELL KNOWN CITIZEN.—General Jacob Eyster, a citizen of Harrisburg, died on Thursday night, in the 70th year of his age. He participated actively in the late war with England, having had charge of the York and Adams brigade, and being detailed to furnish arms to the troops throughout this region. He represented Adams county in the Senate and House of Representatives of this State for many years, being a member at the time the session was held in the Court House during the building of the present Capitol. He also filled the office of Auditor General for about fifteen years.

THE COST OF GLORY.—Great Britain is now paying twenty eight million of pounds sterling of nearly one hundred and forty millions of dollars, a year interest on the war debt which she has contracted in times past. In addition she is paying over one hundred millions of dollars a year to maintain her present defenses. The glory of Great Britain, therefore, costs about two hundred and fifty millions of dollars a year. Who will deny that John Bull has a right to boast of his military achievements and his glory, when he pays so much for it?

VERDICT OF AN AUBURN JURY.—The Coroner's inquest in the case of the convicts shot at the Auburn Prison riot; results in a verdict fully justifying the course of the officers as follows:—The Jury find that the orders of Warden and the acts of the subordinate officers, which resulted in the deaths aforesaid, were necessary to suppress said riot and insurrection, and are justifiable.

IMPORTANT TO VENDERS OF MERCHANDISE.—Attorney GEORGE KNOX has furnished a written opinion to Auditor General Fry, that under the decision of the Supreme Court, in OSBORN v. HOLMES, 9th BAR, page 322, "Vendors of Merchandise must take care to license whether their sales amount to one thousand dollars or otherwise."

NEBRASKA ELECTION.—DEMOCRACY TRIUMPHANT.—At an election held at the City of Omaha, Nebraska, on the 6th inst., the Democrats carried their entire ticket, Mayor, Treasurer, Assessors, Marshal, Aldermen, and all by a handsome majority. Nebraska is "O. K."

John Phoenix went to the theatre once when Mr. Smith was advertised to appear in the piece. After the performance he demanded the return of his money, he said, Mr. Smith appeared whole during both performances.

Bayard Taylor, it is said, has refused an offer of seven thousand dollars a year to write exclusively for the columns of a New York Sunday paper.

The cartoon by the "Hans" of the Auburn Prison, New York, 1864, and three of them had to be shot by the officers. Two of them were mortally wounded.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT OF THE SENATE.—The Senate adjourned on the 30th inst., at 12 o'clock, M., after a session of 10 days, at the capitol building.
