FORTHERS MORROE, Oct. 20
The greet expedition sailed this morning. The flig. hip Webash took the lead at dayingh, who is again was fired as a signal. The excessor Chastles brought up the rear. The vessels, more than fity in namber, formed in line a few miles down the roads, and west out between the coperies splendid cyle. The steamer Hotte had the Orean Express in twy, the Venderbilt the Great Republic, and the Illinois the Golden Engle. The morning was the most beautiful of the season, and the specialism was the grandest are: witnessed. solicle was the grandest aver witnessed this continent. After inquiring in official quarters, I am told that no written orders as to, the race doituntion of the savel expedition were given, and that neither the President nor the Secretary of the Navy know where it is going. The place of landing is left to the discretion of Commodore Dupont, of course in consultation with General Sherman.

The English journals continue to be greatly exercised about the en rance of the French Princes into our service. While the French papers contend that there is an obvious propriety in young men of ardent temperament casing their lot in with a tovernment that, in its early stroggles for national existence, had received so much Fre cheyingathy and aid, it is contended by English papers, such as the Liverpool Courier, that the Pres dent and his Cabinet must have seen that their reception of the Bourbon Princes calcas intended to arleance farther Price and his army are to-day more than a venty nites alread of ours. Tour obedient servant, (Signed) WINFIELD SCOTT.

A special Cabinet Council was convened on Friiday morning, at 9 clock, to take the subject into consideration. It was decided that General Scott'are quest, under the circumstances of his advanced age and infirmities, could not be declined. General McClellan was thereupon, with the unanimous agreement of the Cabinet, no ified that the command of the army would devolve upon him.

At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Cabinet again waited upon the President, and attended him to the residence of Gen. Scott. On being seated the President read to the General the following order:

Teachers,—Chikiren are variously constituted. Some are as hardy as pine knots, and cap stand any a mount of rough handling. Others are as delicate as the sonsitive plant and will shrink from the gentlest touch. Those, therefore, who have the care of children, whether in the domestic nursery or the school room should study very nicely the poeuliar nature of each child and deal with it accordingly. There are little creatures whose spirit a harsh word or an angry look will wound more than a violent blow would bruise their mere flesh, and it is quite obvious that we should not treat them as we would treat a nature of much less moral sensibilities. An exchange paper relates an incident that furnishes a painful illustration of the want of that wise and humane discrimination of which we speak. Last week a little girl, daugther of Mr. Thomas Sutton, of New York city, while at school in the neighborhood, was repremanded by her teacher for some trifling error. Buing an extremely sensitive a child, alse foured that her parents would become acquainted with her fault and reproof it occassioned.—She spoke of being in diagrace and manifested agreat deal of solicitude about it. At moon, when the school took a recess for dinner, the child left as usual. But from that hour nothing has been seen or heard of her, and it is feared that she has destroyed herself. It is possible that the little sufferer may have wandered away in her shame and distress, it and may yet be recovered; but it whatever the result shall be, the that he has destroyed herself. Attack on Gon Managers (Ommand CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.

The Gasette Les reserved the following dispatch:
GALLIPOLIA, O., Nov. 2.—The Rebelt, under Floyl, spaned fire an Gen Roserane forces yesterday mening from two points opposite Gauley, Bridge and Camp Tomptima: Tue telegraph office and Quartermarke's store were ne doubt distroyed. When my informant left Gauley yesterday their shells were aimed at the forry beats and the buildings above named. The enemy has heavy gains and a large body of infanty.

body of infantry.

[ancord disparce.]

Gen. Ployd's forces opposite Camponines are not less than 4,000, but how many are at Gauley bridge, four miles this side, is not known. The telegraphic communication by the Kanawhs line is interrupted, and the casualties cannot be ascertained.

There has been no communication with Gen. Rosecrans' headquarters since Friday afternoon. The opporter at Camp Temphiosat that time reported fighting ging on at Gauley, but give no particulars, and immediately afterwards the line broke.

The Kanawha line was working to Camp Enyart, twelve usikes above Charleston, on Saturday, but nothing was known there of affairs at Gauley. A boat that left Charleston at Toclock on Sanday morning has arrived at Gallipolis, but brings no information.

The New York journals are again at work with their as schievous exaggerations magnifying the naval capedition in the same inflated terms which they used about the Grand Army previous to the march of McDowell to Bull Ran. The world is now shallenged to look on with admiration upon the vast naval preparations which are being made for a blow upon the sac ocat againsat rebellion. It is told that this is the greatest demonstrate on of the hind over undertwhen upon this continent, and nothing sufficiently sugniloquent can be found to compare it to but the Spaish armada which, nearly three hundred years ago, was knoeted to pieces in the British Channel by storm and shot. Now if any similar catastrophe should happen to our expedition, and it is not beyond the chances of diseaser, from it e dangerous service it is engaged in, all the great anticipations which the injudicious exaggeration and hombastic hossitoge are likely to create in the public mind, will be folkened by a reaction fatal to our cause at home and abroad, for the idea of the strength and power of the Confederates would rise in the same proportion to our reverse, and abroad, for the idea of the strength and power of the Confederates would rise in the same proportion to our reverse, and afforts against them.

We all know what a shock the public mind received by the Ball Run diseaser, coming so unexpectedly after the boast of what the "grand army" was to do so soon as it bommenced its moreusent.
