

THE SOUTHERN COAST.

Proceeded the night through a dreaching rain and cold...

There was no noise or confusion. The horses and forage captured, were taken by squads regularly detailed for the purpose...

The expedition was composed of several regiments of infantry and a battery of "Washingtons" under command of Brig. General Beckman...

The troops from this place embarked at daylight on the morning of the 25th, on the transport steamer Convoy, Gen. Hughes...

Our course was down the Neuse River, through Pamlico, Croatan and Albemarle Sounds, and thence up the Chowan River to Wynton...

Our infantry and Belger's Battery were pushed forward to a bridge about 4 miles from Wynton, where a party of rebels (Col. Wheeler's command) was found behind an earthwork...

Col. Spear's command arrived on Monday and was ferried across. I was rejoiced to meet in company D of the 11th, quite a number of Chambersburg boys...

It was a gallant charge. They turned the bend in the road when suddenly the roar of a 32-pounder, accompanied by pieces of smaller calibre, broke upon the air...

thunder, the lightning and vivid and incessant rain fell in perfect torrents. It has been a day of night, and as we have no fire, the cavalry powerless on account of the darkness...

Wounded and sick were taken care of in the morning. The rebels were taken care of in the morning. The rebels were taken care of in the morning...

On the morning of the 25th, the rebels were taken care of in the morning. The rebels were taken care of in the morning...

At 4 A. M. we again started and tried another road to Weldon, but found a bridge burned and the road impassable...

Another night in the mud and another night on Thursday a dreaching rain, and we reached Wynton, where we separated from the Cavalry...

Weldon is an important point, and has an important railroad bridge. The place is strongly fortified, and this fact is well known to the Union commanders...

The Rebel position was a strong one, indeed it proved too strong for the force we had. The road for a quarter of a mile was so narrow that but four horses could pass abreast...

"Let the Rebel cannon roar as they will, We'll be gay and happy still." It was a gallant charge. They turned the bend in the road when suddenly the roar of a 32-pounder...

Such a speech was enough to excite the indignation of any soldier, and the D man exclaimed—"surrendered like a man you cowardly skunk! why the d—d didn't you order your men to fire on me?"...

words a day, and an "all-in" so like the old-fashioned "all-in" that I have seen in the old days...

The years roll on, the years roll on! The shadows now lengthen for the dawn. Wiseman the sunlight fall at noon— The morn of the mortal life!

On all the years, the swift, still years, And as they pass how feeling years!— A memory of the years that pass!

The New Orleans Era gives an interesting account of the visit of Gen. Banks and staff to Gen. Grant at Vicksburg...

Always on hand to take orders, Vicksburg Manufacturing Co. has a large stock of all kinds of goods...

Agents wanted—Liberal inducements to Contractors for the sale of the celebrated CUTTING SHED REWINDING MACHINE...

Agents wanted—The subscriber has a select order for 1000 copies of the "Franklin Repository"...

Wanted—$5000 worth of OLD GOLD PLATE. Persons having worn in large or small quantities can obtain the highest price...

Wanted—$80 a Month—We want agents for a new and profitable business...

Wanted—$75 a Month—I want agents in every county in the State...

Matches and Jewelry. SALISBURY BROS. & CO. 67 WYBOSSET STREET, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

COFFINS OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, at lower rates than any other establishment in town of country...

NEW CABINET-WARE ROOMS. The undersigned respectfully announces to the citizens of Chambersburg and vicinity...

CHAIR AND CABINET MANUFACTURING. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

Agents wanted—The subscriber has a select order for 1000 copies of the "Franklin Repository"...

Wanted—$5000 worth of OLD GOLD PLATE. Persons having worn in large or small quantities can obtain the highest price...

Wanted—$80 a Month—We want agents for a new and profitable business...

Wanted—$75 a Month—I want agents in every county in the State...

Matches and Jewelry. SALISBURY BROS. & CO. 67 WYBOSSET STREET, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

CHAIR, CABINET, & ETC. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

NEW CABINET-WARE ROOMS. The undersigned respectfully announces to the citizens of Chambersburg and vicinity...

CHAIR AND CABINET MANUFACTURING. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

Agents wanted—The subscriber has a select order for 1000 copies of the "Franklin Repository"...

Wanted—$5000 worth of OLD GOLD PLATE. Persons having worn in large or small quantities can obtain the highest price...

Wanted—$80 a Month—We want agents for a new and profitable business...

Wanted—$75 a Month—I want agents in every county in the State...

Matches and Jewelry. SALISBURY BROS. & CO. 67 WYBOSSET STREET, PROVIDENCE, R. I.

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

FOR INSTANCE: Five Dollars, ten Dollars, twenty Dollars, fifty Dollars, one hundred Dollars...

WATER HOTEL. West Market Street, Chambersburg, Pa. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

UNION HOTEL. Third Street, Chambersburg, Pa. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

FRANKLIN HOTEL. West side of the Public Square, Chambersburg, Pa. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

WHITE SWAN HOTEL. Main Street, Chambersburg, Pa. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

COVERLY & HUTCHISON. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

INDIAN QUEEN HOTEL. Main Street, Chambersburg, Pa. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. W. M. FOND & CO. 547 Broadway, New York. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. W. M. FOND & CO. 547 Broadway, New York. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. W. M. FOND & CO. 547 Broadway, New York. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. W. M. FOND & CO. 547 Broadway, New York. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. W. M. FOND & CO. 547 Broadway, New York. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. W. M. FOND & CO. 547 Broadway, New York. The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has commenced the manufacture of chairs...

Franklin Repository

CHAMBERSBURG

Wednesday Morning, Aug. 26, 1863.

UNION STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, ANDREW G. CURTIN, Centre. FOR SUPPLEMENTARY JUDGE, DANIEL AGNEW, Beaver.

UNION COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY, T. JEFFERSON HELL, Chambersburg. FOR PROTHONOTARY, E. SHANKEN TAYLOR, Cambria. FOR REGISTER AND RECORDER, HENRY BRUNCKENBERG, Adams.

FOR CLERK OF THE COURTS, WM. G. HOFFMAN, Southampton. FOR COUNTY TREASURER, JAMES C. HENRY, S. Thomas. FOR COMMISSIONER, HENRY GOOD, Ohio.

FOR DIRECTOR OF THE POOR, JOHN DOEBLER, Chambersburg. FOR AUDITOR, WM. A. AMBERSON, Washington.

JOHN K. STRICKLER is authorized to receive subscriptions and contracts for advertisements in the Repository in the following cities.

Single copies of the Repository can be had at the counter with or without wrappers. Price five cents.

Rumors are again afloat of a rebel raid into the Valley, but they are entirely without foundation.

THE SITUATION. We give in another column the latest news from Charleston.

We have nothing definite from the Army of the Potomac. The Washington sensation correspondents have been insisting that Lee is about to make another aggressive movement into Maryland and possibly into Pennsylvania.

Rosecrans and Burnside are moving simultaneously, but by different routes, on East Tennessee—the former striking for Chattanooga, and the latter for Knoxville.

General Harbut sent an expedition to Grenada, Miss. for the purpose of preventing the rebels from repairing the railroad at that place.

The Spirit is out for Curtin. True, it doesn't just exactly say that it wants him re-elected, nor does it cultivate the chase and endeavor in framing the compliments; but it's the Spirit's way, and we must take things as we find them when we can't make them better.

but things sometimes work by contraries, and the Spirit is one of that kind. Probably it was called into being in the sign of the crab, and can't help hoofing and clawing, because its nature forbids a straight forward movement either in theory or practice.

It was thus a faithful when its sharks and harpies furnished 'shoddy' clothing which fell to pieces on the first wearing, shoes with pasteboard soles, damaged blankets unable to withstand the gentle zephyrs of summer, spoiled meat and mouldy crackers, to the brave volunteers who first rushed to the defense of the flag.

The touching pathos, burning patriotism, brilliancy of delineation, and gems of historic beauty, which flash in dazzling splendor in the foregoing extract, point clearly to the profound political strategy of the Spirit, by which it means to re-elect Curtin by professing not to do it.

It is a true, earnest, loyal man, and has uniformly and zealously acted against the so-called Democracy. He was warmly supported for Prothonotary three years ago, and was sustained in the late Convention with a degree of fidelity and positiveness that gave him success.

The Union County Convention did a good day's work, in presenting a most meritorious and acceptable ticket to the people for their suffrages. If it cannot be elected, then must the "Green Spot" be faithful to herself, to her conceded loyalty, and to our common country.

It was thus a faithful when its sharks and harpies furnished 'shoddy' clothing which fell to pieces on the first wearing, shoes with pasteboard soles, damaged blankets unable to withstand the gentle zephyrs of summer, spoiled meat and mouldy crackers, to the brave volunteers who first rushed to the defense of the flag.

The touching pathos, burning patriotism, brilliancy of delineation, and gems of historic beauty, which flash in dazzling splendor in the foregoing extract, point clearly to the profound political strategy of the Spirit, by which it means to re-elect Curtin by professing not to do it.

Distasteful as is the Spirit's strategy in seeking the re-election of Gov. Curtin, we must henceforth regard it an auxiliary in the Union cause and the success of our worthy Executive.

Of course it knows that Gov. Curtin never furnished 'spoiled meat' and 'mouldy crackers' to the brave volunteers; for the reason that they were in the U. S. service, and were supplied by U. States officers; but as it wasn't trying or meaning to tell the truth, it had to assert that he did starve and poison the soldiers for the benefit of contractors, of whose business he had neither control or knowledge.

Of course it knows that the "shoddy," "damaged blankets," which were defeated in a tilt with the "gentle zephyrs of summer," and the "shoes with pasteboard soles," so far as supplied by the State, were all furnished in contracts advertised and let to the lowest bidder, and controlled and managed entirely by Quarter Master General Hale, who never voted anything else than a Democratic ticket in his life, and who was Surveyor of the Port under President Pierce.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

THE UNION COUNTY TICKET.

The Union County Convention did a good day's work, in presenting a most meritorious and acceptable ticket to the people for their suffrages. If it cannot be elected, then must the "Green Spot" be faithful to herself, to her conceded loyalty, and to our common country.

It was thus a faithful when its sharks and harpies furnished 'shoddy' clothing which fell to pieces on the first wearing, shoes with pasteboard soles, damaged blankets unable to withstand the gentle zephyrs of summer, spoiled meat and mouldy crackers, to the brave volunteers who first rushed to the defense of the flag.

The touching pathos, burning patriotism, brilliancy of delineation, and gems of historic beauty, which flash in dazzling splendor in the foregoing extract, point clearly to the profound political strategy of the Spirit, by which it means to re-elect Curtin by professing not to do it.

Distasteful as is the Spirit's strategy in seeking the re-election of Gov. Curtin, we must henceforth regard it an auxiliary in the Union cause and the success of our worthy Executive.

Of course it knows that Gov. Curtin never furnished 'spoiled meat' and 'mouldy crackers' to the brave volunteers; for the reason that they were in the U. S. service, and were supplied by U. States officers; but as it wasn't trying or meaning to tell the truth, it had to assert that he did starve and poison the soldiers for the benefit of contractors, of whose business he had neither control or knowledge.

Of course it knows that the "shoddy," "damaged blankets," which were defeated in a tilt with the "gentle zephyrs of summer," and the "shoes with pasteboard soles," so far as supplied by the State, were all furnished in contracts advertised and let to the lowest bidder, and controlled and managed entirely by Quarter Master General Hale, who never voted anything else than a Democratic ticket in his life, and who was Surveyor of the Port under President Pierce.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

—We don't exactly object to the Spirit siding in the re-election of Gov. Curtin; but we beg to suggest that it tell the truth occasionally—say once a month or so, for the novelty of the thing, or for the sake of references. If it does not, it may want to tell the truth some time, not for the intrinsic merit of the article, but as a matter of interest or policy, and the danger is that nobody will believe it.

The Harrisburg Patriot and Union, the central organ of Judge Woodward, has steadily, recklessly and maliciously opposed the draft, and has excused every act of lawlessness against it, justified every perversion of the law, and, as far as its limited power extended, prepared the ignorant and faithless for resistance, even to the shedding of blood.

It was deaf to every call from the army of the Potomac and from the loyal men of the Nation, for re-inforcements, to enable our brave defenders of the Flag to reap the fullest fruits of their victories. By every possible means it sought to defeat the conscription and thus defeat the increase of the Army in the field.

But its efforts to defeat a draft has been as impotent as they were traitorous and malignant. True, it was cheered with a short reign of murder, robbery, arson and lawlessness generally in New York, as the legitimate fruits of the teachings it humbly echoes; but still the draft goes on, and its earnest efforts to defeat, for Jeff. Davis, the increase of the Union army, have proved abortive.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

—Why don't the Patriot and Union adhere to its friends? Scores of them who gave it the only faint ray of comfort it has had lately, by murdering, stealing and sacking to their hearts' content under Gov. Seymour's eye, now occupy cells in the penitentiaries of the State, and must be punished there for years for obeying the teachings of traitors.

complain of any half-way work in the matter. If he will only write some forty letters or so and post us up fairly, he shall have the amplest restitution that can be made in the language.

—Seriously—General, do stop making an ass of yourself. There's nothing original in it. You're not the first of the sort that has blundered into Congress to make a respectable constituency bleed!

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

—We intimated last week that the Spirit had got tangled on the Kentucky election. It was disconcerted because Gen. Burnside ordered that "no disloyal persons be allowed to vote;" declared it a most "alarming manifestation of usurpation;" insisted that the result showed "with what frightful rapidity we are drifting into 'despotism' and wound up its lamentations by pronouncing the election of Gen. Bramlette "no cause for congratulation."

away from those long enough before the next national election. They will then play with the remaining shadow of fogyness.

The Democrats of York county have nominated Daniel Reid and John F. Spangler for Assembly, Wm. W. Wolf for Sheriff, Wm. Tignol for Prothonotary, Samuel Ziegler for Clerk, Wm. B. Woods for Recorder, and Peter McIntyre for Assessor Judge. The Knights of the Golden Circle prevail more extensively in York County than in any other section of the State, and their ticket will probably be elected. In no part of Pennsylvania has Jeff Davis stronger footing than in that county, and of course they will vote the Democratic ticket as naturally as a duck takes to water.

The State Agricultural Fair will this year be held at Northtown, Montgomery county, Pa., on the 29th and 30th days of September, and the 1st and 2d days of October, 1863. The most liberal arrangements are being made with the Rail Road Companies, and some of the important roads have agreed to carry freight free. Excursion tickets will be issued at reduced rates. The premium list is very heavy and the locality accessible by the Northtown and Philadelphia Rail Road, and also by the Reading Rail Road. For particulars see the Reading address to A. B. Longaker, Secretary, Northtown, Pa.

We have The Guardian for August, replete with able and interesting religious and literary articles. Rev. H. Harbaugh, D. D. the Editor contributes the leading paper on The Incarnation, and displays great biblical research. The Guardian is "devoted to the social, literary and religious interests of young men and ladies," and merits a wide circulation. M. Keith & Co. Publishers, Chambersburg, Pa. Price $1 per annum.

The Union Convention of Bedford county, nominated G. D. Trout for Assembly, A. B. Bunn, for Prothonotary; William Gephart for Judge, and John G. Minch for Treasurer. It is a good ticket and ought to be elected. Wonder if there is anybody on that ticket who withdrew his subscription to the volunteer fund, as did Mr. Shabon, the Democratic candidate for Prothonotary?

The Union Convention of Perry county have nominated Charles A. Barnitt for Assembly, F. M. McKeehan for Prothonotary, Irwin Christman for Register, James M. D. Henry for Treasurer, and J. H. L. Grant for District Attorney. Mr. Barnitt is a young lawyer of superior ability, sterling character, and will make a most creditable representative. He can hardly fail to be chosen.

We are pained to learn of the accidental death of Alpheus J. Marshall, Esq., a young member of the Carlisle bar. He was in Philadelphia on professional business, and was run over on the street by a territorial wagon, and arrived but a few hours before he was to leave for his home. He was an estimable young gentleman, and his sad and untimely death will be widely regretted outside the circle of his immediate relatives.

The Democrats of Huntingdon have nominated John Zentmyer for Assembly, M. Massey for Prothonotary; G. Ash Miller for Register, and B. Long for Treasurer. It is understood that the Democrats of Huntingdon favor the nomination of Hon. John Cassin, of Bedford for Senator. It would be an odd mingling to see Cassin on a ticket with Woodward.

The Union men of Huntingdon county have nominated David Enler for Assembly, Wm. O. Wagoner for Prothonotary, D. W. Womelsdorf for Register, and John H. Womelsdorf for Treasurer. Dr. H. Grady was recommended for Senator, but we presume that Senator Stutzman, of Somerset will be nominated and elected.

The Kentucky Election is some remarkable feature. The Union vote is heavier while they have felt the war most keenly, while the rich unwarmed counties back from Louisville voted more as if the war were there. Those who know the evils of war, are unconditional Unionists of the best, strongest calibre.

The Democrats of Crawford county have nominated Patterson Johnson for Assembly, A. M. Osburn for Sheriff, R. H. Sargent as Prothonotary, J. B. McGee for Register, E. A. Reynolds and W. F. Owen for Assessor Judge, and J. G. Burlingham for Treasurer. That ticket will be second best by a couple thousand or so.

Hon. E. A. McMurtre has been re-nominated for Assembly by the Union men of Little Blair. He has already served three years in the Senate and one in the House, and possesses superior abilities with his long experience as a legislator.

The Union ticket in Snyder county is Peter Haldy, Jr., of Monticor for Senator; Samuel Alberman for Assembly; Daniel Wittmer for Judge, and Moses Specht for Sheriff. Snyder elects a Senator with Columbia, Monticor and Northumberland, and two Assemblymen with Juniata and Union.

The Democrats of Clinton have nominated Cal. A. C. Noyes for Assembly, and John W. Smith for Sheriff. Cal. Noyes served as member last session, and was twice the savings of his party in fidelity to the cause of the government.

Two Whigmen Republican State Conventions were held at Madison, Wis., and nominated J. E. Lewis for Governor, and Judge Spooner for Lieutenant Governor.

Mr. RICHARD SHANKER, of Fulton county, who was arrested during the rebel invasion and sent to Fort McHenry, has been discharged and is now at home.

