REBEL ATROCITIES

The leaders of the rebellion, defeated at every point, have resorted in their desperation to exhaust themselves in their death struggle...

Our government has exhausted its efforts to effect a just and equitable exchange of prisoners, but without success...

ARMY MOVEMENTS

violation of their parole at Vicksburg, and their return to the rebel ranks...

Gen. Grant has delivered his expected blow upon Bragg with complete success...

CONGRESS will meet on Monday next, and as the friends of the Administration have a clear majority over all phases of muddling, mixed and positive opposition...

WE give in to day's paper the oration delivered by Hon. Edward Everett at the dedication of the National Cemetery at Gettysburg...

Gov. Curtis has appointed Hon. Lawrence M. Leitch, of Lawrence county, as one of the judges of the Lawrence, Butler and Beaver districts...

Gen. Grant's march into the heart of Georgia, we look for him to exhibit himself first of all to open communications with Burnside and render his position perfectly secure...

THE capture of Atlanta, Georgia, is doubtless the great aim of Gen. Grant; and for the threatened danger to Burnside and East Tennessee he could now reach that point without serious resistance...

It is fully to be believed, as we are continually told, that the rebellion is almost crushed. It is revealing in the pride of its strength to day, and pressing our armies back from all its borders...

Gen. JOHN MORGAN, the rebel guerrilla chief, with six of his subordinate officers, escaped from the Cincinnati Penitentiary on Saturday last...

WE have frequently in these columns urged upon the people of Franklin, the propriety of investing their surplus funds in the securities of the National Government...

THE enemy's position carried by Stone!

GO GUNS CAPTURED!
