

TERMS:—The "VINDICATOR" is published every Friday morning, at $1.00 per annum in advance...

Advertisements:—All advertisements for one year or longer will be inserted at the rate of $1.00 per line...

Business Cards:—This section contains various notices and advertisements for local businesses.

BAITMORE LOCK HOSPITAL, DR. JOHNSON. THE founder of this celebrated Institution, the only one of the kind in the world...

STANTON FOUNDRY. PAINTS, OILS, AND GLASS. COOKING STOVES. This establishment is situated in the city of Staunton...

LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST. HAVE you heard the news of the late success of the... JAMES MADSENBERG, JR. Attorney at Law.

JOHNSON & WILSON. Attorneys at Law. RICHMOND, VA. JAMES MADSENBERG, JR. Attorney at Law. RICHMOND, VA.

J. B. WATTS, ATTORNEY AT LAW. BRICK ROW, STAUNTON, VA. B. P. PHILIPS, RESTAURANT.

W. M. CHAPMAN, Attorney at Law. W. M. CHAPMAN, Attorney at Law. W. M. CHAPMAN, Attorney at Law.

The Vindicator.

REGISTRATION. In the House of Representatives, Monday, Jan. 22, 1861. Copy to the Editor of the Vindicator...

THE Senate has ordered the appointment of Mr. Holt, as Secretary of War. Charles is three-eighths of a mile beyond the range of the least ball throwing gun...

At the lowest possible estimate it will cost some millions of dollars to maintain the State of Mississippi out of the Union. All of this will have to be raised by taxation on the people...

THE South Carolina Methodist Conference recently in session, at the close of a series of resolutions, "tender to the State of South Carolina their affection, their intercessions with heaven in her behalf, their interest only to the paramount rights of God..."

CHARLOTTE, and has deliberately made up his mind as to the course he intends to pursue. He says he will not be satisfied until he has secured the surrender of South Carolina. Unless the surrender is made, Mr. Howe says he will not be satisfied...

WE lay before our readers on this page the Crittenden resolutions, and those of the Virginia Legislature, recommending them. They will be found in the proceedings of the Legislature. We believe the resolutions of Mr. Crittenden are the only ones which we approve...

THE Hon. H. A. Gilmer writes to a friend in North Carolina, that if the local masses North and South were reduced, without passion, and with their usual heads to understand the present points of difference, they would be able to settle the questions of slavery extension at last, in spite of the thousand other questions of the day...

Mr. Gilmer says, "I would have the people at once put up their heads, and come and high their heads around Washington, and demand their representatives to be elected to the Congress, and divide the great and powerful sections."

THE Washington Militia. The National Volunteers of Washington City, with a muster-roll of five hundred names, lately held a meeting which they declared that the duties of Washington were identified with Virginia and Maryland, and that they were determined to defend the rights of the South...

That we will aid each other and all citizens against a hostile power. We will stand by each other and all citizens against a hostile power. We will stand by each other and all citizens against a hostile power.

WARRANT, No. 14, 11—An Act for the relief of the State of Virginia, and passed a resolution strongly denouncing the course of the Government and forbidding its agents to leave the State.

The Vindicator.

REGISTRATION. In the House of Representatives, Monday, Jan. 22, 1861. Copy to the Editor of the Vindicator...

THE Senate has ordered the appointment of Mr. Holt, as Secretary of War. Charles is three-eighths of a mile beyond the range of the least ball throwing gun...

At the lowest possible estimate it will cost some millions of dollars to maintain the State of Mississippi out of the Union. All of this will have to be raised by taxation on the people...

THE South Carolina Methodist Conference recently in session, at the close of a series of resolutions, "tender to the State of South Carolina their affection, their intercessions with heaven in her behalf, their interest only to the paramount rights of God..."

CHARLOTTE, and has deliberately made up his mind as to the course he intends to pursue. He says he will not be satisfied until he has secured the surrender of South Carolina. Unless the surrender is made, Mr. Howe says he will not be satisfied...

WE lay before our readers on this page the Crittenden resolutions, and those of the Virginia Legislature, recommending them. They will be found in the proceedings of the Legislature. We believe the resolutions of Mr. Crittenden are the only ones which we approve...

THE Hon. H. A. Gilmer writes to a friend in North Carolina, that if the local masses North and South were reduced, without passion, and with their usual heads to understand the present points of difference, they would be able to settle the questions of slavery extension at last, in spite of the thousand other questions of the day...

Mr. Gilmer says, "I would have the people at once put up their heads, and come and high their heads around Washington, and demand their representatives to be elected to the Congress, and divide the great and powerful sections."

THE Washington Militia. The National Volunteers of Washington City, with a muster-roll of five hundred names, lately held a meeting which they declared that the duties of Washington were identified with Virginia and Maryland, and that they were determined to defend the rights of the South...

That we will aid each other and all citizens against a hostile power. We will stand by each other and all citizens against a hostile power. We will stand by each other and all citizens against a hostile power.

WARRANT, No. 14, 11—An Act for the relief of the State of Virginia, and passed a resolution strongly denouncing the course of the Government and forbidding its agents to leave the State.

The Vindicator.

REGISTRATION. In the House of Representatives, Monday, Jan. 22, 1861. Copy to the Editor of the Vindicator...

THE Senate has ordered the appointment of Mr. Holt, as Secretary of War. Charles is three-eighths of a mile beyond the range of the least ball throwing gun...

At the lowest possible estimate it will cost some millions of dollars to maintain the State of Mississippi out of the Union. All of this will have to be raised by taxation on the people...

THE South Carolina Methodist Conference recently in session, at the close of a series of resolutions, "tender to the State of South Carolina their affection, their intercessions with heaven in her behalf, their interest only to the paramount rights of God..."

CHARLOTTE, and has deliberately made up his mind as to the course he intends to pursue. He says he will not be satisfied until he has secured the surrender of South Carolina. Unless the surrender is made, Mr. Howe says he will not be satisfied...

WE lay before our readers on this page the Crittenden resolutions, and those of the Virginia Legislature, recommending them. They will be found in the proceedings of the Legislature. We believe the resolutions of Mr. Crittenden are the only ones which we approve...

THE Hon. H. A. Gilmer writes to a friend in North Carolina, that if the local masses North and South were reduced, without passion, and with their usual heads to understand the present points of difference, they would be able to settle the questions of slavery extension at last, in spite of the thousand other questions of the day...

Mr. Gilmer says, "I would have the people at once put up their heads, and come and high their heads around Washington, and demand their representatives to be elected to the Congress, and divide the great and powerful sections."

THE Washington Militia. The National Volunteers of Washington City, with a muster-roll of five hundred names, lately held a meeting which they declared that the duties of Washington were identified with Virginia and Maryland, and that they were determined to defend the rights of the South...

That we will aid each other and all citizens against a hostile power. We will stand by each other and all citizens against a hostile power. We will stand by each other and all citizens against a hostile power.

WARRANT, No. 14, 11—An Act for the relief of the State of Virginia, and passed a resolution strongly denouncing the course of the Government and forbidding its agents to leave the State.

FRIDAY, JAN. 16, 1863.

CONVENTION ANNOUNCEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

To James M. Flinn, Esq.

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Notice is hereby given that the Convention of the Union...

Reconstruction - Not Preservation

It is the policy of the Convention to reconstruct the Union...

It is the policy of the Convention to reconstruct the Union...

It is the policy of the Convention to reconstruct the Union...

It is the policy of the Convention to reconstruct the Union...

It is the policy of the Convention to reconstruct the Union...

Speaking at Mt. Sidney

Monday evening we stepped at Mt. Sidney...

Monday evening we stepped at Mt. Sidney...

Monday evening we stepped at Mt. Sidney...

Monday evening we stepped at Mt. Sidney...

Monday evening we stepped at Mt. Sidney...

Reading of the Declaration

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

A Good Picture

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

It is a true and noble sentiment to read the Declaration...

To the People of Virginia

I need not say a word to you of the Convention...

I need not say a word to you of the Convention...

I need not say a word to you of the Convention...

I need not say a word to you of the Convention...

I need not say a word to you of the Convention...

Notice

Various notices and advertisements including names like J. H. Sturt, J. M. Flinn, etc.

