

The Windextor

W. B. BROWN, Editor & Proprietor. TERMS. Published weekly, except on Sundays and public holidays. Price per annum, in advance, $10.00. Single copies, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING. For one square, first insertion, 10 cents per line. For each subsequent insertion, 5 cents per line. For a full page, $1.00 per week.

PRINTING. We print and bind all kinds of books, pamphlets, and newspapers. Also, all kinds of stationery and printing.

List of Desires from the 52nd Regt. Va. Volunteers. Names of soldiers and their families, including addresses and names of their commanding officers.

JOHN M. HUMPHREYS. Attorney at Law. Office in the City of Staunton, Virginia.

W. B. BROWN. Stationer and Printer. Office in the City of Staunton, Virginia.

THE TAX ACT.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMON LAW.

Sec. 1. That every farmer and planter in the Confederate States, who is engaged in the raising of such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule, shall be liable to pay a tax thereon.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall divide the service of the quartermaster into two parts, the one for the collection of the tax, and the other for the distribution of the proceeds.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several States, a copy of this act, and of the regulations thereunder.

Sec. 4. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 5. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 6. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

THE YANKEE.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMON LAW.

Sec. 1. That every farmer and planter in the Confederate States, who is engaged in the raising of such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule, shall be liable to pay a tax thereon.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall divide the service of the quartermaster into two parts, the one for the collection of the tax, and the other for the distribution of the proceeds.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several States, a copy of this act, and of the regulations thereunder.

Sec. 4. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 5. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 6. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

THE YANKEE.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMON LAW.

Sec. 1. That every farmer and planter in the Confederate States, who is engaged in the raising of such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule, shall be liable to pay a tax thereon.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall divide the service of the quartermaster into two parts, the one for the collection of the tax, and the other for the distribution of the proceeds.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several States, a copy of this act, and of the regulations thereunder.

Sec. 4. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 5. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 6. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

THE YANKEE.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMON LAW.

Sec. 1. That every farmer and planter in the Confederate States, who is engaged in the raising of such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule, shall be liable to pay a tax thereon.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall divide the service of the quartermaster into two parts, the one for the collection of the tax, and the other for the distribution of the proceeds.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several States, a copy of this act, and of the regulations thereunder.

Sec. 4. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 5. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 6. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

THE YANKEE.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMON LAW.

Sec. 1. That every farmer and planter in the Confederate States, who is engaged in the raising of such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule, shall be liable to pay a tax thereon.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall divide the service of the quartermaster into two parts, the one for the collection of the tax, and the other for the distribution of the proceeds.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several States, a copy of this act, and of the regulations thereunder.

Sec. 4. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 5. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 6. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

THE YANKEE.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE COMMON LAW.

Sec. 1. That every farmer and planter in the Confederate States, who is engaged in the raising of such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule, shall be liable to pay a tax thereon.

Sec. 2. That the Secretary of War shall divide the service of the quartermaster into two parts, the one for the collection of the tax, and the other for the distribution of the proceeds.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of War shall cause to be printed and distributed to the several States, a copy of this act, and of the regulations thereunder.

Sec. 4. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 5. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

Sec. 6. That the tax on such crops shall be levied and collected in the same manner and form as the tax on such crops as are mentioned in the following schedule.

