

Stanton Spectator.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 1864.

The Spring Campaign.

The Spring campaign has opened not only victoriously but gloriously for the South. The news from the East, West and South has been of the most cheering character. Victory has followed victory in quick succession. The news from the North is, also, of the most encouraging character. The peace party is growing in strength and boldness, and the financial condition of the country is becoming more daily. Gold is going up, and, if our success continue, will soon take an altitudinous ascension.

Failure to exempt.

It is well known that the exemption bill which applied to persons between the ages of 18 and 45 years, exempted the members of specified churches on account of religious opinions, who had paid the tax levied to relieve them from service. When the bill was passed extending the exemption so as to embrace those between the ages of 17 and 18, and 46 and 50 years, Congress failed—it is supposed by mere oversight—to provide for the exemption, "on account of religious opinions," of those embraced by the extension of conscription. It is not presumed that this class of persons will be required to go into the field service—unless it be the corn or harvest field—for that would be making an unjust distinction between persons of the same churches on account of age, and be bringing the heaviest burden upon those who are laboring under the greatest disadvantages.

Meeting.

A meeting will be held in the Court room on next Tuesday night, May 3rd, for the purpose of raising a subscription, to aid the one formed in Richmond, for the benefit of the mained soldiers of the Confederacy. This meeting will be addressed by the Rev. J. L. Strowart who has been very successful in other places in having Associations formed, and is getting contributions for the purpose of supplying artificial limbs to our mained soldiers. The meeting will also be addressed by Hon. A. H. H. Stuart & probably others. The Ladies, (who are the main reliance in every good enterprise) it is hoped, will attend in full force. Stanton should do more than any place yet visited by Mr. Strowart for this purpose. We believe it will. We pledge Augusta to do more than any county in the Valley.

Reported advance of the enemy.

It is reported that the enemy were, during the week, marching from the Roanoke Valley upon Lewisburg with a force of four thousand men. They are reported to have advanced, when last heard from, as far as Sewell Mountain. It is supposed that the enemy at Beverly, in Randolph county, will also advance. If this report and surmise be true, the "Roanoke" may soon be called upon to take the field.

State of Allegiance.

We have received and read with great interest a pamphlet copy of the able and patriotic address of the Hon. J. M. Caldwell, delivered in the Convention at Lexington, on the 15th of March, by Rev. W. H. Estlin. The address is a masterpiece of eloquence and logic. It maintains the duty of every citizen to take an active part in the support of the Government.

Six per cent bonds.

In an article published in this paper last week, it was stated that the old currency, to the amount of two-thirds of its nominal value, could be funded in 6 per cent bonds. This was an error. In speaking of the 6 per cent bonds, which the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to issue to the amount of five hundred millions, the Richmond Whig says:

Reserve Sergeant Corps.

We understand that the Surgeon General has recently issued an order constituting a Reserve Surgical Corps. It will be made up from a part of the Medical Staff of each Hospital, and it will be their duty to help themselves in readiness to proceed at once to the battle field to take charge of the sick and wounded. They are also directed to be prepared with instruments, linens, bandages, &c.

Reserve Sergeant Corps.

The Savannah Republican says the introduction of the new currency into the city of Savannah, which was sent to the rear, is now being sent to the rear.

The Latest News.

A report of our forces on the Valley of the Roanoke on Sunday last, at a place called Run on Sunday last, by Gen. Wirt Adams, commanding the 22d Inst., in the Yazoo River, near Yazoo city, Miss., captured a Yankee gunboat. He saved 8 twenty-four pounder guns and most valuable stores and burnt the boat. He took the captain, pilot and crew prisoners.

On Saturday last, the "Roanoke" in this county were captured by forming companies and leading officers. Four companies were thus organized—four of them between the ages of 18 and 30, and one—an artillery company—of boys between the ages of 17 and 18 years.

First Company.

J. F. Holtz, Captain; John S. Wright, 1st Lieutenant; David W. Cochrane, 2d do.; Wm. McFall, 3d do.

Second Company.

Robert W. Stevenson, Captain; Wm. Crawford, 1st Lieutenant; James W. Crawford, 2d do.; Wm. Morris, 3d do.

Third Company.

James C. Cochran, Captain; Thomas Coleman, 1st Lieut.; Peter R. Bright, 2d do.; Peter E. Hooff, 3d do.

Fourth Company.

John Nunan, Captain; John Beard, 1st Lieutenant; J. O. Baum, 2d do.; G. K. Lewis, 3d do.

Fifth Company.

The company of boys—a very fine looking company—elected the following officers:

J. C. Marquis, Captain; George A. Armistead, 1st Lieutenant; Joseph S. Shinnate, 2d do.; Olin Stafford, 3d do.

The Union States and Mexico.

Notwithstanding, says the Richmond Dispatch, the resolution unanimously adopted by the Federal House of Representatives not to acknowledge a Monarchical government erected upon the ruins of any Republican Government in America under the auspices of any European power, we look for nothing beyond words in that quarter. Having erected a despotic Government on the ruins of their own Republic, they can have no conscientious scruples against a mild monarchy in Mexico like that of Maximilian. The policy of the thing will be their rule of action, and they are not fools enough to bear the military power of France. The resolution of the House, as Mr. Corjuxly claracterized it, is a maraboutisme fulmine, unless backed by arms. And how are they going to back it in that way? They have already more on their hands in that way than they can attend to—ballying the South and cringing to Europe is the extent of their capacity.

Richmond Dispatch.

The Richmond Dispatch gives the following additional particulars: The force engaged on our side was Hoke's brigade, commanded by Col. Mercer of the 21st Ga., Ransom's brigade, commanded by Gen. Ransom, and Kemper's (Virginia) brigade, commanded by Col. Terry.

On Sunday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, our forces, under the command of Gen. Hoke, arrived in front of Plymouth, the fortifications being plainly visible through the trees behind which the Confederates were drawn up. The 1st Va. regiment, commanded by Major Norton, was thrown forward as skirmishers, and the enemy's batteries and their fortifications were shelled.

On Monday our forces held the position assumed Sunday evening, the enemy shelling at times furiously. By this shelling the following casualties, of which we have heard, occurred in the 1st Virginia regiment: Delaware McMinn, wounded in the side, supposed mortally; Frank Joseph, ankle crushed; Theo. J. Robertson, in eight places, all slight; Lieut. Payne, face, slight.

On Tuesday, it seems, heavy fighting occurred, with varied success, and on Wednesday morning the place was carried by assault. Hoke's brigade entering and fighting with the bayonet, up the principal trench, Col. Mercer, who led them, was killed. During Tuesday our artillery, including the Fayette Artillery, of Richmond, was planted within 150 yards of the fortifications and opened fire. The Fayette Artillery, it is stated, suffered heavily from the enemy's fire.

The gunboat which went out of the Roanoke, it is said, made short work of the shipping in front of the town.

Sunday morning our cavalry pickets found a negro spy coming into our lines wearing the dress of a field hand, and having a red handkerchief tied around his head. Under this dress was found the full uniform of a Yankee soldier. The negro was hung on the spot.

Six per cent bonds.

In an article published in this paper last week, it was stated that the old currency, to the amount of two-thirds of its nominal value, could be funded in 6 per cent bonds. This was an error. In speaking of the 6 per cent bonds, which the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to issue to the amount of five hundred millions, the Richmond Whig says:

Reserve Sergeant Corps.

We understand that the Surgeon General has recently issued an order constituting a Reserve Surgical Corps. It will be made up from a part of the Medical Staff of each Hospital, and it will be their duty to help themselves in readiness to proceed at once to the battle field to take charge of the sick and wounded. They are also directed to be prepared with instruments, linens, bandages, &c.

Reserve Sergeant Corps.

The Savannah Republican says the introduction of the new currency into the city of Savannah, which was sent to the rear, is now being sent to the rear.

The Yankee Congress.

The recent vote in the Federal House of Representatives on the resolution to exclude Mr. Lee of the House of Representatives, is of more than ordinary significance in our opinion. Long had made a speech of great civility against the administration, in the course of which he attacked the bill which the majority of the House had passed on the independence of the South, acknowledging that to have the independence of the South would be to have the independence of the United States, and that the independence of the United States would be to have the independence of the world, and that the independence of the world would be to have the independence of the universe.

What do we learn from the result of this?

First, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war. It is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Ninthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Tenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eleventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twelfthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventeenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Nineteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twentiethly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-firstly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

The Yankee Congress.

The recent vote in the Federal House of Representatives on the resolution to exclude Mr. Lee of the House of Representatives, is of more than ordinary significance in our opinion. Long had made a speech of great civility against the administration, in the course of which he attacked the bill which the majority of the House had passed on the independence of the South, acknowledging that to have the independence of the South would be to have the independence of the United States, and that the independence of the United States would be to have the independence of the world, and that the independence of the world would be to have the independence of the universe.

What do we learn from the result of this?

First, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Ninthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Tenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eleventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twelfthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventeenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Nineteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twentiethly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-firstly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

The Yankee Congress.

The recent vote in the Federal House of Representatives on the resolution to exclude Mr. Lee of the House of Representatives, is of more than ordinary significance in our opinion. Long had made a speech of great civility against the administration, in the course of which he attacked the bill which the majority of the House had passed on the independence of the South, acknowledging that to have the independence of the South would be to have the independence of the United States, and that the independence of the United States would be to have the independence of the world, and that the independence of the world would be to have the independence of the universe.

What do we learn from the result of this?

First, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Ninthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Tenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eleventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twelfthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventeenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Nineteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twentiethly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-firstly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

The Yankee Congress.

The recent vote in the Federal House of Representatives on the resolution to exclude Mr. Lee of the House of Representatives, is of more than ordinary significance in our opinion. Long had made a speech of great civility against the administration, in the course of which he attacked the bill which the majority of the House had passed on the independence of the South, acknowledging that to have the independence of the South would be to have the independence of the United States, and that the independence of the United States would be to have the independence of the world, and that the independence of the world would be to have the independence of the universe.

What do we learn from the result of this?

First, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Secondly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirdly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Ninthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Tenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eleventhly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twelfthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Thirteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fourteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Fifteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Sixteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Seventeenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Eighteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Nineteenthly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twentiethly, it is a clear proof that the Democratic party in Congress have assumed, and intend to maintain, an unqualified and defiant opposition to the Republicans, about Lincoln and the conduct of the war.

Twenty-firstly, it is a clear proof that the